$12 Million Commitment to Build a Jetty for Geraldton

A future WA Liberal Government will invest $12 million to deliver a new jetty for Geraldton, creating a world-class recreational and tourism asset that locals have long been calling for.

WA Liberal Candidate for Geraldton Tim Milnes said the commitment responds to strong community support and will provide a major boost to tourism, recreation, and economic growth.

"Geraldton locals have wanted a dedicated fishing, walking, and recreational jetty for years. More than 7,000 people have backed this project—now it's time to make it happen," Mr Milnes said.

The commitment follows the City of Greater Geraldton's feasibility study, which explored three potential locations and confirmed the jetty's economic and social benefits.

WA Liberal Leader Libby Mettam said the jetty would be a landmark project for Geraldton's foreshore and is proof that strong regional representation delivers real outcomes.

"A Geraldton Jetty isn't just about recreation—it's about jobs, tourism, and making our regional city even more liveable," Ms Mettam said.

"This project is happening because regional representation matters. Unlike Labor, who have ignored the regions, the WA Liberals are listening and delivering. Jetties in places like Busselton have become major tourism drawcards, and this investment will help Geraldton thrive by attracting visitors and creating new business opportunities."

In addition to boosting tourism, the jetty will provide a safe, accessible space for fishing, swimming, and community gatherings—enhancing Geraldton's outdoor lifestyle and coastal identity.

"This will be a jetty for everyone—families, seniors, fishers, and visitors alike," Mr Milnes said. "It will be a place where locals come together, tourists explore, and Geraldton's rich maritime heritage is celebrated."

0438 650 592 Federal Member for Durack Melissa Price welcomed the commitment, calling it a huge win for the community.
